

Jesus sent the apostles ahead while He sent the multitude away. He walked across the waters to join them in the boat.