

Joseph saved food so that when none would grow God's people would not be hungry.