People crowded the streets to see Jesus. Zacchaeus wanted to see, too, but he was too short. So he climbed up a tree.

As Jesus was passing by, he looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down. I want to go to your house." Zacchaeus scrambled down the tree.

Zacchaeus was a tax collector. His job was to get the tax money from the people and give it to the king. Nobody liked him. He was surprised but happy that Jesus wanted to come to HIS house!

Zacchaeus told Jesus, "I will give money to the poor. And I will pay back anyone I have cheated. In fact, I will give them back more money than I took." Jesus was happy that Zacchaeus was going to make things right.
