

Louisiana

- The background shows a portion of the state seal. It shows a pelican feeding its three chicks in their nest. Apparently a pelican will tear off pieces of its own flesh for food rather than allow its young to starve. This behavior is what is portrayed on the seal and the flag.
- The pelicans and banner underneath are white.
- The flag's background is blue.
- Adopted in 1912.