

Rose

- New York adopted the rose in all of its forms and colors as its state flower.
- The roses is typically a fragrant flower with thorny stems and is, perhaps, the most popular flowers of all time.
- it was made the state flower of New York in 1955.