

The Boston Tea Party. Relations with England deteriorated. On the night of December 16, 1773, a band of Bostonians, angered by the British tax on tea, disguised themselves as Indians and raided three tea-laden ships in Boston harbor, dumping 342 cases of tea into the water. The English retaliated with the harsh Intolerable Acts.