

Medicine is NOT candy.

Parent tip: Never tell children medicine is candy. If children think medicine is candy they will take it even when you are not looking.