

Super Bowl Football

On January 15, 1967, the first NFL-AFL World Championship Game was played with the Green Bay Packers defeating the Kansas City Chiefs, 35-10, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. This major pro football game later became known as the Super Bowl and is now played on the last Sunday in January.