

Paul Revere's Ride. On the night of April 18, 1775, Boston silversmith Paul Revere galloped from Boston to Lexington to warn the colonists that British troops were advancing on Lexington and Concord to seize patriot leaders and capture the main patriot arsenal of hidden weapons. 3