

Sheltered in their forest home, the young fawns curl up close to their mother and go to sleep on the soft, green grass.

RaisingOurKids.com