

DESERT MARIGOLD

Baileya multiradiata

Plant Family:

Aster | Asteraceae

The palmately lobed leaves as well as the stems are woody with a greyish color, topped by beautiful golden yellow flowers reaching 12-18" tall and blooming through the heat of summer into fall - March through November. It enjoys partial shade, growing in sandy / gravel soils and attracting nectar insects and butterflies.