On December 11, 1946 the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, known as UNICEF, was established by the United Nations General Assembly.