

Hard times began in 1929. Millions were unemployed. "Bread lines" were a necessity for free food for the poor.