

I'm Holly the Honeybee. Each year my sisters and I make almost 5 million pounds of North Carolina honey! We also help farmers grow their fruits and vegetables by carrying pollen to and from all of the flowers we visit. That's called pollination.