

Jet planes began to fly at supersonic speeds — a far cry from the covered wagons of the old West.