

The two children searched the old witch's house. They found great chests of jewels and precious stones. Hansel filled his pockets and Gretel filled her apron.