

Shark Skin

A shark's skin is made of denticles. Unlike ordinary fish scales, denticles look and act like hard, sharp teeth, and help to protect the shark from injury.

White tip reef shark gets too close to a diver.