

Cactus Wren

- builds many nests in the protection of cactus thorns. It lives in one and uses the rest as decoys.
- the female lays 4 to 5 buff eggs with brown speckles.
- the Cactus Wren was adopted as Arizona's state bird in 1973.