

White Pine Cone and Tassel

- The white pine is a very tall tree. It was used in the 1600's as masts for English ships.
- Like all pines, the white pine houses its seeds in woody cones that hang down from the ends of branches.
- it was made the state flower of Maine on February 1, 1895.