

A shepherd boy,
David, told the king
he would fight
the giant.

David knew that God would help him
defeat Goliath.

David swung his slingshot over his head and let the stone fly toward the giant.

David's little stone flew through the air and knocked Goliath to the ground.

With God's help,
David defeated the giant and saved the Israelite army.

