

Tax Reform – Pay Your Fair Share – Work

Trump believes all people should pay some taxes. Those that make more can pay a higher percentage and those that make less can pay less. Bringing home business and providing stability to the American business culture will create more jobs and higher paying positions.

Kicking the tail and making "Wall Street Fat Cats pay up will be a priority of Donald Trump. Making sure those that make a tremendous amount of money and pay little in taxes will come to an end. The cronies and the tax haven crooks will become things of the past under a Trump plan. Making the American Citizen come first is a cornerstone of Trump's personality.
