

This map, copied from one in the Oneida County Historical Society, was made around 1803 and shows the exact location of the locks of the Inland Lock and Navigation Company canal, one of the first in America.

