

Jesus taught the people day by day. One time when it grew late, He made a meal for five thousand by using five loaves of bread and two fish.