

Dodger

Voice of Billy Joel

The Dodger, New York's "coolest quadruped," is a mutt with a healthy helping of street savoir-faire. Self-assured, glib and ready to rumble, the Dodge also has a tender side that only his family, the gang, can see. So what if he is always the star of his stories? His pals know when he's joshing, and they know he'll always defend them. A natural leader, the Dodger may be "too cool" on the outside, but inside he reveals a purebred sense of honor, bravery and warmth.
