

Michigan

- The elk and moose are symbols of Michigan and the bald eagle is a symbol of the United States.
- The man represents peace and the ability to defend his rights.
- The words on the flag mean (from the top down) "Out of Many, One", "I will defend" and "If you are seeking a pleasant peninsula look around you".
- Adopted in 1911.