

When they got there, God said to uncover the torches and break the pitchers. Gideon and his army did. The Midianites heard the noise and saw the light. They were afraid and ran away in the night.