

California

- The background of the flag is white with a crimson red stripe along the bottom.
- Bear represents the many bears found in California when it was first settled.
- Adopted as the state flag in 1911.