Your New Puppy

You just brought home a new puppy. Congratulations! This is a very exciting time for both of you. Soon you and your new puppy will be the best of friends. While you are getting to know each other your puppy wants you to remember a couple things about him.

Right now he is a baby. He needs lots of naps just like a real baby. Make sure you only play with him for a few minutes, then let him take a nap. While he is sleeping try not to wake him up.

You will want to be careful not to shout or hit at your puppy. This may scare him. Let your Mommy or Daddy take care of your puppy when he is naughty.

Puppies love to play, but make sure you don't tease. Holding his toy up just a bit too high for him to reach will make him very unhappy. It will also teach him to jump and bark, this will not be fun when he is bigger.

Ask Mommy or Daddy if you can help at feeding time. This will teach your puppy that you are the big guy and he needs to listen to you.

You are a very important part of your new puppy's training. With your help he will grow big and strong and be your very special friend. Have Fun!
