

Ferns are non-flowering plants that grow in damp or shady places, like humid forests or river banks.