

James Polk Term of Office: 1845-1849

On November 2, 1795, James Polk was born in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina. He was the eleventh president of the United States. On February 14, 1849, James Polk was the first president to be photographed in office. During his presidency, the postage stamp was first used. He died in Nashville, Tennessee on June 15, 1849.