

At the age of ten his family moved to St. Croix, and young Hamilton began working for the Beekman & Cruger trading company. After he spent a few years acquiring a mastery of international currency, he was trusted enough to be placed in charge of the company while the owner was at sea.