

American poet and storyteller, Edgar Allan Poe, was born on January 19, 1809, in Boston, Massachusetts. Orphaned at age 2, he was raised by Virginia merchant John Allan. He is best known for his famous poem, The Raven and his mystery story of suspense.