

Plate 12
MARY CASSATT (1844–1926)
Children Playing on the Beach, 1884
Oil on canvas.

In this sweet image of two little girls playing together on a beach, Cassatt masterfully captures the natural attitudes of the children. They both appear completely absorbed in what they are doing. The water and sailboats in the background are left undetailed in order to keep the viewer focused on the subjects.