

Blackeyed Susan

A native green tree frog (Hyla cinerea) finds a better view and maybe an insect or two on the yellow Blackeyed Susan (Rudbeckia hirta). This yellow flower, with dark brown center, provides nectar for insects and tiny seeds for birds.