

In 1961 the Peace Corps was created to enlist men and women for service in the world's under-developed countries.