

Did you know? Annually, the second Monday in January is the Japanese national holiday for youth Coming of Age. It is a celebration for all youth that have reached adulthood during the preceding year.