

Gopher Tortoises live in burrows that they dig underground. A burrow can be almost 50 feet long and can be shared by other animals like mice, owls, frogs, and snakes.