

Samuel was called by God and served in the temple from childhood. He was the last of the Judges.