

The Pilgrims bartered with the native people for the land to establish the Plymouth colony.