

QUEEN BOUDICCA

Warrior Celtic Queen who led the Britons to victory over the Romans. Died 62 A.D.

They do not distinguish between the sexes in positions of authority.
- Tacitus

Pray for victory and liberty against men insolent and unjust.

—Boudicca according to Cassius Dio

On the left: the Snettisham torque, a mantle from the Arc d'Orange, and a pattern on her tunic "of many colors" from a Lisnacrogghera scabbard, in the British Museum. She holds the Deskford carnyx or horn and a Roman head, from Bath. On the right: her face is from the Thorsbjerg helmet; she wears the Mowroad