

Flag of Argentina

Adopted on February 27, 1812. Designed by Manuel Belgrano.

A triband flag with horizontal bands coloured light blue, white and light blue with the yellow Sun of May charged in the center.

Sky blue (celeste) represents clear skies and better future. White symbolizes snow of Andes, purity and peace.

Sun of May symbolizes dawn of a new era.

