

The next group of birds Kayde visited are the unique and interesting birds from the island of Australia.

The Superb Lyrebird is about the size of a rooster and is brown and ash in color.

The Laughing Kookaburra is known for its distinctive call, which many people think sounds like human laughter.

The Brown Coshawk is a medium sized bird of prey and is gray and chestnut color.