

General Lee and General Grant met at Appomattox Court House in Appomattox, Virginia, to discuss the terms of surrender for Lee's Army. It was a sad day for the states of the South.