

Herakles: The son of the Greek God Zeus and the mortal woman Alcemene. Herakles was mortal, but was stronger than all men and most Gods. His bravery and heroic deeds earned him his immortality and a place on Mount Olympus.