

PRINCESS CELESTIA

Princess Celestia is better than you. You aren't good enough to look her in the eye. You better get down on your knees and give her respect, or you'll be on your knees praying two seconds before you're on your knees dying.

You think you're bad? Princess Celestia will fucking erase you.

Princess Celestia is full-on hardcore death metal state of the badass art.

How much can you lift? Could you lift the entire planet earth? How about something 330,000 times heavier than the planet earth, something whose mass takes up 99.86% of the entire fucking solar system?

How about the motherfucking SUN? Hot enough to melt TIME? Yeah, how about you pick that up and drag it all the way across the sky every morning and night, smiling like it ain't no thing? That's right, fuck you. Now get out your pencils and markers, you little shit-stain, and color this goddess in. And if you color me pink, I'll send you to the fucking moon.
