

Maryland

- The state flag shows the family crests of the Calvert and the Crossland families.
- Cecil Calvert founded Maryland as a British colony in 1634. The crest is gold and black diamond and rectangle shapes.
- The Crossland family crest consists of red and white crosses. The Crosslands were Calvert's maternal family.
- Adopted in 1904.