

Dutch navigator Abel Tasman explored and mapped the coast of northern Australia in 1642. He returned in 1644 to explore the many island groups nearby Australia. The Island of Tasmania has his name.

© Guy Colwell 2013