

Gustav Klimt (July 14, 1862– February 6, 1918) was an Austrian Symbolist painter and one of the most prominent members of the Vienna Secession movement.

The Tree of Life by Gustav Klimt is one of the most reproduced oil paintings in the modern day. It was painted in 1909 during the most prolific part of Klimt's career. The complexity and boldness of the painting makes it instantly recognisable.
