

APPLEJACK

Have you ever kicked a tree so hard that fruit fell out of it?

That's right, I didn't think so.

Now how about an entire motherfucking orchard? This here pony calls that her early morning stretches, and her name's Applejack.

Applejack saw you dragging your measly hide over to Sweet Apple Acres and she's having none of it. It's time to show her what you've got, or she's liable to buck you back into the shit hole you crawled out of. Oh she's hard, but she's fair.

Can't handle the pressure? Then sit the fuck down and go buck yourself.

She's one down to earth applebucking pony that'll knock your socks off, then make you pick them up out of the dust.
