

TWILIGHT SPARKLE

This is Twilight Sparkle. When she isn't standing proud with her mane flowing behind her, she's busy being the motherfucking Element of Magic. Can you even begin to understand how much badassery you need to be the Element of Magic?

This purple and pink pinnacle of power will send your sorry ass back to magic kindergaten.

See that horn there? She can use it to create forcefields. Bend space and time. Move objects with her motherfucking MIND. Bitch, she can even move you. And she's ended better artists than you with that horn, so you'd best get your fucking act together. Twilight Sparkle's in the house.
